This is an exciting and unusual opportunity for a Speech and Language therapist to work closely with the school's SENDCO and mainstream SEN hub team. The Speech and Language Therapist plays a central role in supporting pupils with a range of speech, language, and communication needs (SLCN). The role blends direct clinical expertise with capacity-building across the school, ensuring pupils can access learning, communicate effectively, and participate fully in school life.

Key Responsibilities

- Develop and implement strategies to support children with identified Speech, Language and Communication Needs (SLCN).
- Deliver speech and language support programmes, working closely with the SENDCO
- Work with individual pupils and small groups to develop communication and language skills.
- Monitor and record pupil progress and contribute to review meetings.
- Work collaboratively with teachers, support staff and parents to support pupils effectively.

The Ideal Candidate will:

- Hold a degree in Speech and Language Therapy
- Have a strong interest in supporting children with special educational needs.
- Be patient, empathetic and committed to helping children thrive.
- Have excellent communication and organisational skills.
- Be able to work both independently and as part of a team.

We offer

- The opportunity to gain valuable school-based experience supporting speech and language development.
- A welcoming and supportive school community.
- Experience working alongside experienced SEND and education professionals.
- Opportunities for professional development and training.

Safeguarding

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. All posts will be subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure, medical and reference checks. All Pre-employment checks are in line with "Keeping Children Safe in Education. All references will be taken up before interview.

Visits are warmly welcomed. However, for an informal discussion please contact the school office on 01476 565800
Application forms and further details are available from the school and on the school website.
